

Class-V Subject: English
Student Name: _____ Sec _____ Roll No. _____ Date: _____

THE TALE OF PETER RABBIT AND WHEN I'M AN OLD LADY
SECTION D (LITERATURE READER)

I. Answer the following questions (short).

1. Write the names of the four little rabbits.

2. What did Peter eat from Mr. McGregor's garden?

3. Whom did Peter ask for direction when he lost his way?

II. Answer the following questions (long).

1. I got lost in Mr. McGregor's garden. I'm sorry mother. I should've listened to your warning. Why did Peter say so?

2. Was Peter a daring and adventurous rabbit?

III. Read the following extracts and answer the questions.

1. Run along, my dears. Remember, don't get up to any mischief. Don't go into Mr. McGregor's garden?

a. Who said this and to whom?

b. Why did the mother say "Don't go into Mr. McGregor's garden?"

2. When I'm an old lady, I'll live with each kid,
And bring so much happiness Just as they did.
I want to pay back all the joy they've provided.
Returning each deed! Oh, they'll be so excited!

a. Why does she want to live with each kid?

b. How does the woman in the poem wants to bring back the happiness?

THE SECOND VOYAGE AND TARTARY
SECTION D (LITERATURE READER)

I. Answer the following questions (short).

1. Why did Sindbad decide to set sail once again?

2. What did Sindbad see when he woke up?

3. How did the sailors describe the roc?

4. What did Sindbad see along the slopes of the valley?

5. How did the serpents save themselves from roc?

II. Answer the following questions (long).

1. Describe how Sindbad was left alone on the island?

2. How did Sindbad escape from the island?

3. How did Sindbad get out of the valley using the eagles?

4. Describe how Sindbad save himself from the serpents?

5. What did Sindbad do after reaching Baghdad?

III. Read the following extract and answer the questions.

1. "Your gift is valuable enough to make a fortune in itself!"

a. Who said this and to whom?

b. What is the gift he is talking about?

2. 'I had made up my mind to stay quietly in Baghdad, but it was not long before I grew bored of a quiet life.'

a. From which lesson are the above lines taken?

b. Why was Sindbad bored of living in Baghdad?

3. If I were Lord of Tartary,
I'd wear a robe of beads,
White and gold and green they'd be
And small and thick as seeds;
And ere should wane the morning star,
I'd don my robe and scimitar
And zebras seven should draw my car
Through Tartary's dark glades

a. Pick and write at least 2 pairs of rhyming words.

b. What is the meaning of robe?

c. How would the beads of then robe be?

d. Who should draw the car?

A VISIT TO THE KAZIRANGA AND WE GO THIS WAY BUT ONCE
SECTION D(LITERATURE READER)

I. Answer the following questions (short).

1. When is the best time to visit Kaziranga?

2. Where is Kaziranga situated?

3. What was Kaziranga declared as in the year 1985?

4. Kaziranga is home to which animal?

5. When was Kaziranga declared as a tiger reserve?

6. Name a few animals that can be found in Kaziranga?

II. Answer the following questions (long).

1. The author prefers to use jeeps for the safari. Why?

2. Which experience is described as surreal?

3. What happens when the rhino charges at the elephant?

4. Write a few lines on Kaziranga National Park.

III. Read the following extracts and answer the questions.

1. The silence is mesmerising except for the rustle of the grass and then, there is a hush as we come to a standstill.

a. Why is the silence mesmerising?

2. My naturalist explains that they are vegetarians.

a. Who is the author referring as they here?

IV. Read the following lines and answer the questions.

We go this way but once, then let us make,
The road we travel blossomy and sweet,
With helpful, kindly deeds and tender words,
Smoothing the path of bruised and stumbling feet.

a. Why can we go this way only once?

b. How can we make the road blossomy and sweet?

SECTION B (WRITING)

Write a biography on Steven William Hawking using the following hints. Known for Cosmologist, physicist, best-selling science writer. Also known as Steven William Hawking. Born: January 8, 1942 in Oxfordshire, England. Parents: Frank and Isobel Hawking. Died: March 14, 2018 in Cambridge, England. Education: St Albans School, B.A., University College, Oxford, Ph.D., Trinity Hall, Cambridge, 1966. Published Works: A Brief History of Time: From the Big Bang to Black Holes, The Universe in a Nutshell, On the Shoulders of Giants, A Briefer History of Time, The Grand Design, My Brief History.

BIRBAL'S WIT (PLAY)
SECTION D (LITERATURE READER)

I. Answer the following questions (short).

1. If a person can take a joke on himself without getting upset, what does this mean?

2. What was the challenge given by Akbar in the court?

3. What was the prize announced for the challenge?

II. Answer the following questions (long).

1. How was the refusal changed into compliment by Birbal?

2. How did Birbal win the challenge of counting the crows?

3. What did Akbar do while eating mangoes with the Queen?

III. Read the following extracts and answer the questions.

1. You have set an impossible task.

a) Who said these words and to whom?

b) Why was the task impossible?

SECTION B (WRITING)

IV. Edit the following passage. There is an error in each line. Write the incorrect word and the correction.

	Incorrect	correct
In a small village lived a milkmaid, who sold a milk	_____	_____
that she got of her cows.	_____	_____
She would carry the milk on a big mud pot.	_____	_____
On day, as she was walking with the pot full of milk	_____	_____
on her head, she started of imagine all the things she	_____	_____
wished to do with a money she would earn from selling the milk.	_____	_____

V. Read the cloze passage and fill in the blanks with the words given in the help box.

sweeten, chocoholics, grow, food, sugar, daily, chocolates

Chocolate is a very popular _____ item for people of all age groups. In spite of not being an important ingredient of our _____ diet, it is a favourite of many. I specially love _____ for the way they melt inside the mouth. I am sure many will feel quite depressed if the supply of chocolates is suspended suddenly for some reason. The most important ingredient for making chocolates is the seed of the cacao tree. These trees _____ only in tropical countries. However, sugar is used with the present version of chocolates to _____ it. People who can't remain without eating chocolates are known as _____.